Guilty by definition of the city includes that a person was found by guilty following a trial, entered a guilty plea, entered a no contest plea accompanied by a court finding of guilt (regardless of adjudication) or received court directed program in lieu of a conviction. Certain infractions although not found guilty at the time, may qualify for dismissal of participation in volunteering. The city reserves the right to prevent volunteers' participation when management feels it is in the best interest of the program and or participants. Updates of program criteria may be revised periodically to ensure the best practices.

Individuals found to have pending court cases for anything therein of this policy will be considered a disqualifying event. Any volunteer coach and other volunteers that should have a pending case are to immediately report the information to the Director of Park & Recreation.

Applicants for any volunteer position shall provide written consent by acknowledgement of this form for a criminal background check and sex offender check to be completed as deemed necessary throughout the time affiliated with this organization.

Any person(s) with disqualifying offenses and disqualified from volunteering will be contacted and provided a right to receive a copy of the background received from the reporting agency. Any person, firm or organization providing information or records in accordance with the background screening process is released from any and all claims of liability for compliance. Such information will be held in confidence in accordance with departmental, firm and organization guidelines.
